Hopkinsville, Ky., April 30th, 1906.
Mr. Walter F. Garnett, Agent,
New York Life Insurance Co.,
City.

Dear Sir:—
It gives me pleasure to acknowledge receipt of statement of optional settlement on 20-Payment Life Policy, No. 223,593, for $1,500.00, issued at age 35, with premium of $52.50, taken out with you Apr. 29, '86. After having been insured for 20 years, I am offered a paid up policy for $1,500 and a cash dividend of $406.88, or the total value may be withdrawn in cash—$1,215.85, (which is more than I have paid in in the 20 years) or a fully paid up policy payable at my death for $2,219.00.
The cash settlement of $1,215.85 is equal to Term Insurance at $12.87 per $1,000 and an investment of the balance of premiums with 5 1/2 per cent. compound interest for twenty years. This showing is certainly a creditable one for the New York Life, and I will be pleased to give you my application for $1,000 on the Ordinary Life plan.
Yours very truly, C. E. WEST.

SCHOOL OPENS NEXT MONDAY.

The Attendance Will Doubtless Be Larger Than Last Year.

LIST OF TEACHERS.

Larger Attendance of Non-Resident Pupils Expected Than Last Year.

The City Public Schools open next Monday morning. Superintendent Hamlett and the Board of Trustees have been busy during most of the vacation getting the buildings and grounds in perfect condition and making all necessary arrangements for the coming year. Whilst there have not been any radical changes made, yet there are some variations that will prove more convenient for the teachers and pupils.

The receipts for tuition for non-resident pupils last year approximated $800 and it is expected that the receipts will run up to nearly $1,200 this year.

It is safe to predict a larger general attendance than last year as the influx from the country that has been going on for years has in no sense abated, but, from the demand for houses, is doubtless on the increase.

The excellence of our school system is proverbial, and under the supervision of Superintendent Hamlett, supported by an enthusiastic and competent board of trustees, there need be no apprehension of a backward step, but rather an advance year after year as the needs of a constantly increasing population and school attendance demand.

Below we give a complete list of the teachers and assignments as will appear in the 25th annual report of the schools, now in press:

High School Faculty.

Miss Lelia D. Mills, English, Grammar and French.

M'CREARY ACCEPTS

Challenge to Debate With the Governor.

Richmond, Ky., Aug. 24.—Senator J. B. McCreary, just before leaving for Lawrenceburg Thursday penned and mailed the following printed letter to Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, at Frankfort, which was in answer to one the Senator had just received from the Governor, challenging him to a joint debate:

"Gov. Beckham, Frankfort, Ky.—Dear Sir: Yours of August 21, 1906, was received this afternoon by me. You refer to my answer, made in my speech at Mt. Sterling last Monday, to a statement made by you in your speech at Lexington, Ky., which is as follows: 'I have never asked or received pecuniary aid from the whiskey interests in the present race for United States Senator, nor in any race I have made for office in the past. I would like to know if Gov. Beckham can say the same.'"

"You say that you can cheerfully answer that question, and suggest that in order that we may have an opportunity of answering any questions that might be asked, we arrange for a series of joint discussions at such place as you and I may agree upon. I have two engagements this week, and an engagement to speak at Owenton next Monday, the 27th of August. It will afford me pleasure to meet you at any convenient time or place after next Monday, for the purpose of arranging such joint discussions as we may agree upon. I desire that the people of Kentucky have the fullest opportunity to become acquainted with the issues involved in the present campaign."

Respectfully,
JAMES B. M'CREARY.

RIPE IN YEARS.

Wm. G. McGehee Passes Away at Gracey.

Mr. William G. McGehee died at his home near Gracey Wednesday afternoon of paralysis. The deceased had been in very poor health for many months, and his death was not unexpected. He was the father of J. W. and T. A. McGehee, of Clarksville, and R. S. McGehee, of Pembroke. He was an uncle of H. C. McGehee, of Gracey, and T. E. Bartley, of this city. Mr. McGehee was a native of Virginia, and was about 80 years of age. The funeral services were conducted Thursday and the interment occurred in Clarksville.

ATTEMPTED ASSAULT

By a Negro Porter On Illinois Central Pullman Car.

Fulton, Ky., August 23.—A well-known young woman, whose name is withheld because of the nature of the affair, was forced into the toilet of a Pullman car by the negro porter, just north of this place on the Illinois Central railroad, and but for a terrific struggle on her part, she would have been assaulted. Her clothing was torn from her body, and her arms were badly cut by being thrust against the window. She was rescued by passengers. The negro is in jail under guard, while the woman is under medical care.

THURSDAY'S STORM.

One Person Badly Shocked and a Few Trees Splintered.

Thursday at 1 p. m., a terrific rain, wind and electric storm literally came down on the city. It caught the full force, which was pretty much local, though some parts of the county got a small share. Up about Pembroke there was no rain in sections but everybody got a look at the black clouds and the play of the lightning and heard the thunder's deep roll. The people here had the benefit of "the grand, free exhibition on the outside" with one and thirty-five one-hundredths inches of rain thrown in. But everybody was made glad by the drop in temperature which succeeded several days of torrid heat, the mercury playing in close proximity to the century mark. Ninety-three was the highest mark in the tube reached, but after experiencing an unusually cool summer the people thought almost every day was the hottest day of the year.

So far as learned, the damage by the storm was insignificant. We have heard of no casualties, though the wife of the colored grocer, Jared Hawkins, received a rather serious shock from the thunderbolt at 1:10 that caused nearly everybody to think that the house of his next-door neighbor had surely been struck. Hawkins' wife was in the yard with a large galvanized iron pan in her hand feeding some small chickens so she could get her hands on them and "take them in out of the wet." She was stooping over when the electricity got hold of her pan, shocking her so that she fell forward to the ground. The chickens got a share of the electricity and fell all around, apparently dead. The woman picked herself up and hustled into the house, leaving the chickens to take care of themselves.

A large tree in the yard of Mr. E. B. Long, on Walnut street, was partially stripped of its bark and the body ruined. Water maple trees lost much of their foliage, especially where the insects have been feasting on the leaves. There was quite a rise in the river and many of the streets were flooded. Gardens suffered but little by the wind, but there was some damage to tobacco near town in the course of the wind.

CHILEAN QUAKE.

Total of 658 Bodies Recovered and Buried.

Some of the business houses in Valparaiso opened Thursday for the first time since the earthquake. Telegraph communication with Santiago has been restored. The city is still under martial law. The work of recovering bodies of victims is being pushed to the utmost in order to avoid an epidemic. The number of corpses buried up to Thursday was 648.

In General Disfavor.

Negro troops do not seem to be wanted anywhere in the United States and an effort probably will be made in the next congress to repeal the law which provides for the enlistment of negroes. Even the Filipinos object to colored soldiers.

No Frost in Chicago.

Seven deaths and 17 prostrations from heat were reported Thursday in Chicago. There was a drop of 14 degrees in temperature during the afternoon, which brought relief.

Another for Paducah.

Miss Clara Rader was bound and gagged by two negro burglars in her home in Paducah, but the intruders were frightened away before they secured anything.

Had Been to Church.

Eugene Weaver, a prominent Allen county man, was beaten insensible and robbed while returning from church near Scottsville and is in a serious condition.

Rain as Usual.

Rain prevented the races at the Kentucky and Tennessee Fair at Guthrie, but the opening day was a successful one.

Discovery has been made by investigators for the United States
census bureau, who are looking up divorce statistics in New York, that many of the divorce decisions in the old Court of Common Pleas are inoperative because no degree has been entered upon the records. It is believed that in many such cases
the parties to the divorce have married again. Such marriages are void and can only be legalized by action
of the legislature and much confusion and inconvenience to the interested parties is certain to ensue.

There is a city in New England
with schools for every class of citizens: schools for mechanics, for busy mothers, for backward children, for adults who do not speak English.
They call it "A City of Special Schools," and Marion Melius has written a wonderfully interesting article about it for the September
number of Everybody's Magazine.
Whether you are parent or teacher or student, you will want to read this inspiring story of experiments that have succeeded, this prophecy
of the education of the future.

Mr. Bryan, says an exchange, was away from America eleven months,
and during that time he made $1,000
a week by writing articles on his travels for a syndicate of American papers. He will earn approximately $50,000 by his articles, and they will be reproduced in book form later,
which will net him at least $25,000
more. It is estimated that Mr.
Bryan's expenses of traveling with his wife, son and daughter have been $200 a week, or about $10,000 for the time he has been away. His earnings for the year, therefore, will net
him $65,000.

Mr. Bryan's latest pictures show that he has almost discarded the use of hair on the front part of his head and that his forehead extends back several inches further than it used to.

A NOBLE WOMAN.

A Bouquet For Mrs. Secretary Green Worthly Bestowed.

TO THE KENTUCKIAN:

No one connected with the Dark
Tobacco District Planters' Protective Association for fidelity to the cause,
and for labor performed, deserves
more credit than the Secretary, Mrs.
Nannie Greene.

She is a native of Bowling Green,
Ky.

If it were possible to do without her services, and we could get a man as faithful to perform this work as is this beautiful, true and good woman, then southern chivalry would have cause to blush for not making a man our secretary to undergo this labor. But southern cheeks have no cause to glow with shame, for we must have the very best of service, hence we are forced to retain this lady as we cannot find a man so faithful, so earnest and so true to our cause. All the world knows how sincerely honest women are in business. Mrs. Greene is scrupulously honest, and from early morning all day long till the clock strikes 12 and 1 at night her typewriter is almost incessantly going.
She acts in a double capacity of private secretary to the General Manager, and as secretary of the Association, and Hon. F. G. Ewing has sent out from his office as many as sixteen hundred, and two thousand letters per day. Then, she has written all contracts to be signed by the agents of the Association and notices to the members of the Executive Committee calling the meetings of that committee. She attends all these meetings, carefully notes everything that is said or done and elaborately writes
out the minutes in correct and accurate form.

If honor should go to those to whom honor is due, thrice a double portion would be her lot if she got her dues. She is patient, remarkably intelligent and energetic as well as attentive to every detail and minute feature of the tremendous business of this great Association that now extends over the Dark Tobacco District of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia. This Black Patch extends from Richmond, Va., on the east to the Mississippi river on the west,
and from the Ohio river on the north to the southern boundary line of Dickson County, Tennessee, on the south. Besides, territory in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia is being added every day. We have also the Upper Cumberland tobacco
district, Smith County, Tennessee, and are ready for the other counties

in that tobacco district to join us.

While some men have honestly toiled till they have been compelled to rest, Mrs. Greene has not so much as mentioned any desire to rest, and is as bright, fresh, pleasant and agreeable as if she were at play.
No seaside for her is necessary. She is a Kentucky thorough-bred and as such deserves not only a crown of Blue Grass but, also, a crown ornamented with golden tobacco leaves
for her wonderful working capacity
at the hands of the Dark Tobacco Planters, whose fight she has materially helped to win.

All honor to this gentle, quiet and splendid lady of Grand Old Kentucky!

Her heart is patriotically engaged in this cause of us planters, because she loves her Kentucky people and earnestly desires to aid them, the Virginians and the Tennesseans with all the good in her power.

Hats off to Mrs. Greene!

The Cheapest Food.

The cheapest food is the kind that induces the hens to lay. The best of all substances for promoting laying is lean meat or green bone cut fine.
Lean meat may cost from 5 to 10 cents per pound, while grain may only be one-third as high, but the point to notice is not the cost, but the results, the number of eggs secured. No kind of food is cheap if the hens do not lay and the object when purchasing food should be to get only that from which results are obtained. The profit may be larger when the cost is great, while cheap
foods may entail a loss.

When grain is relied upon exclusively the fowls will not thrive because such food is too concentrated.
All kinds of poultry require bulky food. Clover hay is used in winter because green food cannot then be obtained, and it is the cheapest of all foods compared with the benefits
obtained from its use.—Poultry

Spur Doesn't Tell.

A spur is no indication of the age of a bird. We have seen and owned Game Bantam cocks that never grew
a spur, and have known a Silver Spangled Hamburg pullet in less than a year to grow a spur large enough to fit a ten year old hen. If spurs could be eliminated entirely,
it would prove a decided blessing as in some cocks they are so long and sharp as to prove absolutely dangerous to his mates. The spur like the fifth toe is something whose usefulness has not yet been discovered.

Blue Denimed Lad.

"Blue denimed lad, with a busted toe,
Why do you smile at this old world so?
Little brown boy, with a sun-burned nose,
Out at the crown where your cowlick
blows—

"Raggedy lad, with a coat of tan,
What makes you happy? Come, little man!

"Is it the brook with its babbling flow,
Brook that has bass in its undertow?
Is it your boat, or your dog or kite?
Is it the pond lilies floating white?
Is it the strawberries on the hill?
Is it the swimming pool by the mill?

"Is it the wood with its creatures queer?
Is it the sky that is blue and clear?
Is it, Oh, blue denimed lad, the bee?
Leading away on an ether sea?
Is it, my boy, just the soulful lad
Throbbing within you that makes you glad?

"Ah, ragged lad, with a busted toe,
Tell me your secret—I long to know.
Tell me your secret that I may quaff
Deep at the fount that has made you laugh!
Show me the spring of your guileless joy;
Let me again be the barefoot boy."

Blue denimed lad, with the busted toe,
Pondered a moment—I ought to know.
"Tige's got a chipmunk high up a tree!
Puss hez got kittens! Would you come see?

I go to school, but they ain't none now—
Jimmie and me is a bring'n th' cow!"

"Raggedy boy, with a busted toe,
Are these the reasons your laugh rings
so?

Mere bagatelles in the worldly plan
Fate has in store for the life of man!"
"Ain't you quite happy?" he lisped.
"That's bad!"
"If you were younger you might be glad!"

Little old man with a longing heart,
Once in a life comes the boyish part!
Once in a span comes the boyish tan
And the busted toe of the little man!
Only the cheer of the after glow
Clings to the man in life's ebb and flow!

Little Crackers.

Falling in love generally results in Willie keeping his ears clean, anyhow.

Some writers sell all the good stories
they write and still don't make a cent.

Why the knocking remark that "Beauty is only skin deep"? The average woman never loses her skin.

The girl who has no heart in her work frequently has given it away to a man who has promised to work for her.

Liquor is not always the cause of a man's downfall. A glance into the home life would prove liquor to be only the effect.

The higher up on the ladder of fame
we climb the farther we get from the simple joys that satisfy. The flowers of contentment grow in lowly places.

The line, "They lived happily ever afterward" has been remodeled. It now reads, "They lived more or less happily until she went to see a divorce lawyer."

When a politician is defeated, he always figures out that he is better off anyhow. A bit of the same philosophy prior to the campaign would save large campaign expenses.

Things are more or less paradoxical.
It is pronounced "shofer," but you don't have any sho-fer your life when the choo-choo man hits you in the concentric with his buzz wagon.

Woman gets the worst of it all along. Before marriage she has to iron shirt-waists that Charlie mussed
and after marriage she is compelled,
by good wifely precedent, to press his trousers.

Good and Loud.

Speaking of meat scandals and stockyards aroma, "Colonel" Davis,
the Chicago artist, says the city abandoners are not in it for smell with the little slaughter house he remembers to have existed back home when he was a boy.

"It was certainly a loud one," said
the colonel spearing a piece of finnan-huddle with his fork. "It smelled to heaven! Why, talk about investigating it! You couldn't get near enough to see it, let alone investigating. That slaughter house was sure exempt from the muck rakers."

The Old Reliable Jewelry House

of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

SITTING UP

And in Few Days Will be On the Streets.

The many friends of Mr. Henry Baynham will be glad to learn that he is now sitting up some every day. His physicians will allow him to walk around shortly and in a few more days Mr. Baynham will be shaking hands with his friends on the streets.

HERE'S A GUESS.

Two Widowers Thought to Be Preparing to Wed.

Out on South Virginia street there is a great deal of house cleaning, putting down carpets, etc., that leads the neighbors to believe there is to be a couple of weddings in the near future. We can't call names, but everybody has the privilege of a few guesses.

Oldest Prisoner On Record.

Antonio Nargade, aged 104, the oldest prisoner ever received in the Riverside, Cal., jail, was on trial for assault on his wife. Scores attended the trial of the centenarian.

He and his wife fell out over her carelessness, as he charged, in preparing his favorite dish, which so incensed him that he hurled a plate at her.

She in turn felt that such table manners, even at their time of life, called for an arrest, and Nargade must now serve the county sixty days.

Low Rate to New York.

One fare plus $2.25 to New York and return August 28 and 29, account of the home coming of W. J. Bryan. Good until Sept. 4 returning. J. B. MALLON, Agt.

Barnes Items.

Barnes, Ky., Aug. 24.—The farmers have had an abundance of rain and late corn is as good as made.

Bro. H. C. Foard is conducting a revival at Foard's Chapel. Bro. Foard is a fine speaker and is having large congregations.

There will be an ice cream supper at the Christian church at Dogwood Chapel Saturday night, August 25. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church and everybody is invited.

Mr. Charles Carter's little boy, Edward, is quite sick with fever. Miss America Bord, of Kelly, is visiting her cousin, Miss Hallie Clark, this week and attending the religious services at Foard's Chapel.

Tobacco worms are very plentiful and the farmers are putting up a good fight against them to save their crops. SENRAB.

Limb Broken.

Ruth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Williams, of near the city, sustained a very serious accident at Dunbar's Cave Saturday. She, with many other young people, was riding on a merry-go-round. Becoming sick, she was about to faint, when she jumped from the machine, which was running at a rapid rate of speed. One of her limbs was broken just above the ankle, and she received several more or less painful injuries. She was given medical attention at once and was brought home Saturday night. She is getting along as well as could be expected.—Pembroke Journal.

EIGHT ARRESTS

For Minor Offenses Since Last Monday.

The police force has been on the hustle this week. Beginning with Monday, they have gathered in eight victims up to yesterday morning. There were three drunks, one vagrant, one profane language and three breach of the peace.

NOTICE!

Persons owing me will please call and settle before Sept. 1st.

GEO. W. YOUNG.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

Only Six Marriage Licenses Issued This Month.

The indications are that County Clerk Campbell will not have to buy a new marriage license book before serving out his term, though he has been in office but eight months. People just won't marry, that what's the matter, says Mr. Wicks. During this month there have been but six licenses issued—and how far apart have been the applications. One issued on the 7th, two on the 18th and one on the 23rd. The others too far back to count. If the gathering of school teachers this week doesn't bear fruit in the future, it is hard to tell when there will be a revival in the matrimonial market.

Killed Wrong Girl.

Ernest Tanksley was arrested at Bedford, Ind., Tuesday on the charge of kidnapping Nellie Rainey, who was with him. He is suspected of murdering Miss Sarah Schafer in Bedford on Jan. 21, 1904, the theory of the prosecution being that he mistook Miss Schafer for the Rainey girl, with whom he had an appointment at the spot where the murder was committed. The dead woman greatly resembled the Rainey girl.

Origin of the Orange.

It is to India, and to the Arabs as middlemen, that Europe, and through Europe America, owe this familiar fruit. The orange crossed from Africa to Spain with Mohammedanism, while, probably, the Crusaders are to be thanked for bringing it to Italy and Western Europe among the trophies of the East. The very name is really Arabic—"naranj"—and of Eastern origin, though the legend that it comes from two words meaning "elephant" and "be ill," because elephants ate oranges to make themselves ill, is absurd. Probably in French the initial "n" is dropped off from naranj with the final "n" of the indefinite article, just as our "an apron" represents a "napron," and the spelling with an "o" points to false associations with "or" (gold). —Economista, Havana.

Winter in June.

The Australian Hen for June says: "Winter has suddenly spread its mantle over this quarter, and after warm, dry weather we are suddenly smitten with biting winds, driving rain and chilling fogs. To the breeder prepared for the change of season it is not so bad, but for him who puts off and puts off it means trouble. It is time preparations were made for the reception of the chicks and the breeding stock carefully overhauled and put up for the season and time that the beginners contemplating 'a few fowls' should decide what they require and where they will obtain the birds, and then lose no time in getting them."

Their farm and timber lands are distributed as follows: Arkansas, 15,500 acres; Illinois, 2,000; Georgia, 5,000 acres; Kansas, 45,120; Minnesota, 50,000; Texas, 14,720; Oklahoma, 10,500. Also a nice list of Hopkinsville real estate, and Christian county farms. Call and see them. Northwest corner Main and Ninth streets, Hopkinsville, Ky.

INSTITUTE CONCLUDES.

Teachers Finished Their Work and Adjourned Yesterday.

DR. WILLIS' LECTURE.

Friday's Program Was Carried Out In Most Interesting Manner.

The County Institute concluded its sessions yesterday and adjourned, after adopting the usual resolutions of thanks to its officers.

Thursday night Dr. J. C. Willis delivered a lecture on "Representative Men" to a large crowd in the court room. The lecture was preceded by a musical program. As a lecturer Dr. Willis proved to be most entertaining and his address, a series of stories about such men as Lincoln, Lee, Grant, Buckner, Ingersoll, John Wesley and others, furnished much food for thought.

The Institute work yesterday was quite interesting and there were many visitors to hear the various discussions. The meeting as a whole was a complete success and reflected great credit on Prof. W. E. Gray, the county superintendent, who had charge of the arrangements.

Former Citizen.

Mr. Robert Fletcher, the popular traveling salesman, was operated on for a chronic trouble in St. Louis early in the month. He is rapidly recovering and will soon be on the road again. Mr. Fletcher was at one time a citizen of Hopkinsville, but is now living in St. Louis.

Guthrie Fair.

Today the Guthrie races will come to a close. The attendance from this city has been very good, while towns along the L. & N. sent large delegations.

PADUCAH BOYS,

After a 300-Mile Spin, Reach Home By Rail.

"After a ride on their bicycles from Louisville to Hopkinsville, Salem Cope and Reuben Bagby, two Paducah boys, have returned home, arriving here yesterday. It was their intention to complete the journey home, but at a place about 18 miles from Hopkinsville, Bagby fell from his wheel and alighted on a sharp rock, cutting his side. On reaching the next town they packed their bikes and boarded a train for home." —Paducah Sun.
